P.O. Box 6095, Nelspruit, 1200

Hotel Promenade is located in the Lowveld region's Capital City, Nelspruit. Once the original town hall of Nelspruit, this historic hotel is one of the town's landmarks, with its stately clock tower bearing silent witness over the Promenade Shopping Arcade. This heritage city hotel offers guests well-appointed and spacious accommodation with warm personal service, and genuine local hospitality.

The hotel offers an inviting pub, full service á la carte restaurant and delicious buffets. Hotel Promenade stands at the gateway to the Drakensberg escarpment with all its scenic wonders such as the Blyde River Canyon and Pilgrims Rest. The hotel is a popular launching point for visitors to the Kruger National Park and is only a 30-minute drive to the park's entrance. The hotel is strategically located close to the Kruger Mpumalanga International Airport.
